

Words of Wisdom

My father used to play with my brother and me in the yard.

Mother would come out and say, "You're tearing up the grass."

"We're not raising grass,"

Dad would reply. "We're raising boys."

Driving Directions to Lakewood

Take I-4 West towards Tampa, then I-75 north to exit #293. Turn right at the top of the exit ramp, going back over the interstate. Drive 2 miles north toward Brooksville on C.R. 41 (not U.S. 41) and turn left onto Dan Brown Hill Rd. where the "Entering Hernando County" sign is posted. Follow the Lakewood signs 2 miles to the office.

If you have any trouble or need to get in touch with us on the way, call Kenny Ellis at 863-698-4352.

What's This All About?

Life can get hectic and months and years seem to come and go way too fast. Meanwhile, our boys are growing up and we need to make the most of these precious years with them. So, we are headed off for a weekend adventure to make some memories. Fathers and sons of all ages are welcome. Come join us!

Where Are We Camping?

We are headed to Lakewood Retreat Center in Brooksville, FL. Lakewood is a woody retreat center with a lake, trails, sports fields, putt-putt golf, basketball & tennis courts, human foosball, ping-pong, tree fort and playgrounds. There is a bath house with showers, etc.

How Do We Get There?
